

Dear FCC

As the founder of Medscape (www.medscape.com) I have seen the difference access to information can make in people's lives. The FCC's permission to allow unlicensed spectrum for WiFi is now having as much positive impact on American life and business that the 'Net itself had. This support should be continued, and thanks for helping to make the WiFi phenomenon happen!